Assembly Bill 1103 (Saldaña, Chapter 533, Statutes 2007) requires a nonresidential building owner or operator to benchmark a building's energy use in advance of the sale, lease, financing or refinancing of the entire building.

Starting January 1, 2014 California will require owners to disclose their building's energy use to a potential buyer, lender, or lessee.

If you or your clients have plans to lease, sell, finance, or refinance a commercial building, we encourage you to participate in this webinar where we'll discuss:

- The statute
- Compliance instructions
- Energy Star Portfolio Manager
- Lender/broker considerations
- Incentives

Remember - regulations are now effective, so register today for this FREE webinar!
